Team Too Termite & Pest Control

Melissa Houtchens appointed Director of Human Resources

On October 1, 2006 Team Too appointed Melissa Houtchens to the position of Director of Human Resources at their corporate offices located in Corona, California.

Melissa began working with Team Too part time in February of 1996 as part of the call center staff performing back office duties such as completing termite reports and generating sales and production reports. Melissa is a graduate of California State University Long Beach with a bachelors of science in psychology.

William Houtchens, President of Team Too stated “Melissa brings together all of the points of view within the office to focus our strategies with our staff. Her insights into the thought process and the knowledge she has of being around the pest control industry for the last 14 years help us to better focus our training, recruitment, and employee development programs.”

Prior to moving to full time employment in June 2006, Melissa was a stay at home mother while working part time at Team Too. Melissa states “Now that all my kids are in school I needed a new challenge and being part of the office team definitely keeps me on my toes”

Team Too is a third generation family owned and operated pest management firm. The corporate offices are located in Corona, Ca. with branch offices serving all of California. Team Too is the industry leader in multi family and residential property pest management, and termite management strategies.
