Team Too Termite & Pest Control

Ryan Brawley Appointed Regional Manager

On October 1, 2007 Team Too appointed Ryan Brawley to the position of Regional Manager in their new San Jose / San Francisco Bay Area office.

Ryan began his career with Team Too as a field service technician in July of 2002. Mr. Brawley has worked within the pest management and termite departments with Team Too since starting. While in the pest management division he excelled on his route territory and exceeded production goals by 12 to 15 percent each month. During his tenure in the termite department he was appointed crew leader after only one month and ran Team Too's Heat Blast® treatment program. Recently in June of 2007 he was appointed termite department manager at Team Too's corporate office.

William Houtchens, President of Team Too stated "Ryan has been an essential team player, he was motivated to learn all aspects of our business. Ryan has continually proven himself as a leader and when looking at candidates for the position of Regional Manager there was no doubt that he was the hands down choice."

Team Too is a third generation family owned and operated pest management firm. The corporate offices are located in Corona, Ca. with branch offices serving all of California. Team Too is the industry leader in multi family and residential property pest management, and termite management strategies.
