Stephen Lackey Appointed Regional Service Manager

On December 1, 2006 Team Too appointed Steve Lackey to the position of Regional Service Manager in their Corona, California office.

Stephen began his career with Team Too as a field service technician in May of 2005. Upon becoming licensed Stephen has shown a desire to excel in both sales and service. In his first month in the field Stephen achieved 128% of his production goals and earned both a sales and service bonus.

Prior to his employment with Team Too, Steve played professional baseball for the Cleveland Indians AA minor league team Akron Arrows. Stephen was drafted directly from Norte Vista High School in Riverside, Ca. by the New York Mets. Steve currently resides in Riverside, Ca. with his wife and three children.

William Houtchens, President of Team Too stated "Steve's background as an athlete and professional attitude help motivate the individuals he works with. Steve will provide our team with resources and attitude to continue to move forward with confidence."

Team Too is a third generation family owned and operated pest management firm. The corporate offices are located in Corona, Ca. with branch offices serving all of California. Team Too is the industry leader in multi family and residential property pest management, and termite management strategies.
